VESAK BOCHEA FESTIVAL - Cambodia

Vesak Bochea (Buddha Day) is Cambodia's most sacred Buddhist festival, marking the Buddha's birth, enlightenment, and passing into Parinirvana. The day is observed with dawn alms-giving, prayers, candle lighting, and shrine circumambulation, creating a serene and luminous atmosphere.

Location: Celebrated nationwide at pagodas and temples, with major gatherings at Oudong Mountain (Preah Reach Troap) in Kandal Province, north of Phnom Penh.

Date: Full moon of the sixth lunar month - Friday, 22nd May 2026

For travellers: Dress modestly and respectfully when visiting temples. Arrive early to witness dawn chanting and alms-giving. Visitors are welcome to attend respectfully and may bring simple offerings such as flowers, candles, incense, or food as a traditional act of devotion.

Plan ahead and book your accommodation early to ensure you don't miss this festival and the opportunity to experience it.

HANDPICKED STAYS & SPOTS

VIETNAM

VietCharm CULTURE & DINING SHOW - Ho Chi Minh City

A premium multi-sensory dining and performing arts experience set within the historic grounds of the Reunification Palace in the heart of Saigon. Combining refined cuisine with artistic storytelling, the show invites guests on a journey through Vietnam's cultural heritage in an elegant and immersive setting.

Highlights:

- 90-minute cultural journey through Vietnam's history and heritage.
- Unique art & dining experience blending stage performance with refined cuisine.
- Carefully choreographed performances celebrating traditional Vietnamese arts.
- Folk dances and imperial-inspired scenes showcasing the richness of Vietnamese culture.
- International-friendly format using music, lighting, and dance instead of spoken dialogue.

- Immersive storytelling offering a vivid glimpse into Vietnam's identity and traditions.

STREET FOODS STREETS – Ho Chi Minh City

Ho Chi Minh City's street food is everywhere, making the city feel like one big open-air restaurant. More than just the food, it's the lively atmosphere and local energy that make street dining one of Saigon's best experiences.

Top Picks:

- VINH KHANH street has become a buzzing night-time food hub, lined with hundreds of seafood and street-food stalls stretching nearly a kilometre and drawing crowds until midnight. Famous for snail dishes, grilled shellfish and local specialities, it was recently ranked among the world's coolest streets by Time Out and is home to standout venues such as the Michelin-selected Ốc Oanh—a vivid showcase of the city's evening food culture.

Fried sea snails with chilli salt and grilled scallops with spring onions. (Ốc Oanh @ 534 Vĩnh Khánh Street)

- HO THI KY street was once known for its night flower market. Today, nearby alleyways are packed with street food stalls, making it a lively spot with a buzzing atmosphere and hidden food gems.

Chicken feet in spicy-sour Thai sauce (Chân gà rút xương)

Korean fried chicken (Gà Sốt Cay Hàn Quốc)

Street bites – spicy octopus sticks (bạch tuộc chiên), skewers (nem lụi), grilled quail eggs (trứng cút chén)
